Fine Arts Festival

Saturday 10am-6pm- OCTOBER 3-4 2009 - Sunday 10am-4pm

General Information

Buda Fine Arts Festival (BFAF) is a juried show held on the greenbelt in Buda, Texas, rain or shine. The entries of fine art will be reviewed based on design, technique, creative use of materials and aesthetic qualities.

Each new applicant is required to submit 5 digital images representative of the work to be exhibited by email to ginnyharlow@austin.rr.com. Any artist that has been juried into the festival 2 years in the past does not need to submit images. These artists may fill out this application and submit it, and are assured a booth in 2009 provided their body of work is of the same caliber as in the past.

Booths are 10x10 under a large canopy tent. The artists must provide their own display system and take responsibility for all financial transactions and applicable taxes. All artists must have a valid sales tax certificate. Electricity will be provided to the booths free-of-charge. No dismantling of booths before 4pm Sunday, October 5.

All work must be original, designed and executed by the accepted artist. Fine art reproductions of original art are acceptable for sale, i.e. Giclee, etc. Only artists displaying their own work may participate. If two artists collaborate on an artwork, both names must appear on the artwork.

If two artists wish to share a booth, an additional booth fee applies (see below). No more than two artists are allowed to share one booth space.

Booth Fees

Booth fee rates: One artist in one booth: $150 will reserve a 10x10 booth space
Two artists in one booth: $200 will reserve a 10x10 booth space

Please do not submit booth fees at this time. Accepted artists will be notified by the Jury Committee and billed accordingly.

Security & Setup

Artists shall set-up their booths between 8am and 3pm on Friday, October 2, 2009 to accommodate the "Art After Dark" gala even at 7pm. This year we have added something new, in addition to the fine arts festival we will be having a wine tasting festival and a Chef's challenge.
